SAMAYA-16 December 2011

[illegible]

Cuttack, Dec. 16: Orissa High Court today granted anticipatory bail to actor Dushyant Panda.

Dushman was in hiding and had to skip his wedding reception after model Priti Mohanty, 24, filed a complaint that the actor had ditched her.

Dushmant, who married actress Kajal Mishra recently, had filed an application for anticipatory bail after a case was registered against him at the Mahila police station in BBhubaneswar on the basis of Priya's complaint.

His parents, too, have secured anticipatory bail from the high court.

Priti had staged a protest at Kajal's marriage reception party demanding the actor's arrest. She had filed a petition in the family court in Bhubaneswar on November 29. On December 7, the family court accepted her petition.

along with an interim application seeking an order not to recognise the marriage of Dushmamt and Katal.

The high court granted anticipatory bail to Dushmanta on Friday despite Priti's petition opposing the anticipatory bail application on the ground that there is a chance he might tamper with evidence.

Cancellation of bail petition was also sought. The high court, however, rejected her plea. Applications for anticipatory bail were also filed by Dushmant's father Krushna Chandra Panda and mother Priti told The Telegraph that Dushmant was guilty and that was why he had to hide from police and ask for anticipatory bail.

"I am aware that the court granted him and his family members anticipatory bail. I will file another petition in the high court on Monday because I feel the sections under which the accused has been booked are not in keeping with my complaint," said Prithi.

The case against the actor was registered under sections 493 (cohabitation caused by a man deceitfully inducing a belief of lawful marriage), 341 (wrongful restraint), cheating (417), 294 (wrongful restraint), 506 (criminal intimidation) and 34 (acts done by several person) of the Indian Penal Code.

"The single-judge bench of Justice Sanju Panda allowed the anticipatory bail applications today and directed all three applicants to surrender in the court of subdivisional judicial magistrate (SDJM), Bhubaneswar, to get regular bail," the actor's counsel Sandip Parida told the Telegraph.

The court directed Dushyant to deposit Rs 10,000 as security in the case he seeks regular bail from the high court. However, the court left it to the SDJM to fix other terms and conditions for bail to the actor and his parents. Parida said.

Balanger, Dec. 16: Witty political cartoons, satirical sketches from everyday life and drawings with social and political commentary are among the various subjects that this cartoonist brother duo explore.

Aswini Rath and Abani Rath, who hail from Balangir, have contributed their caricatures, sketches and humour-based cartoons to many journals and publications since 1989.

Now, the duo, popularly known as Aswini-Abanti, have added another feather to their cap by becoming the first ever cartoonists from Odisha to be invited by the Indian Institute of Cartoonists, Bangalore, to exhibit their works.

The institute, which serves to promote and preserve cartooning in India, has earlier held exhibitions of R.K. Laxman, Sudhir Dhar and Mario Miranda, who passed away recently. Aswini-Abani will display their works at the Indian Cartoon Gallery in Bangalore between December 17 and 31. Abani works as an officer in a nationalised insurance company while Aswini holds a doctorate in botany and heads the department at a nearby college. The brothers believe in analysing day-to-day events and weaving them into their work.

"Observing events and people around us helps us come up with interesting ideas and funny expressions. Of course, we have the top political news at the back of our hands," said Abani.

"We love drawing together though we can draw separately as well. Usually, we share our ideas and help each other put that into pictorial representations," said Aswini, the elder of the two.

Speaking to The Telegraph, the duo described their forthcoming exhibition as a rare occasion. Aswini said it was like a dream come true for them. "I never thought that the premier institute of cartoonists in India would ever hold an exhibition of our works as we hail from a small town in Odisha. It is like a dream come true for both of us. The fact that it is a solo exhibition holds greater significance for us," Aswini said.

The cartoons that would be exhibited cover a wide range of issues from political to society to ... cover a wide range of subjects such as politics, so-

... and science. The exhibition will have cartoons, state of affairs in all spheres of our society," he said. Several awards including the grand prize in the Inter-Contest on Oil, France, in 2010.

for special mention at the 2nd Free Cartoons Web In-festival, 2003, in China and the 15th, 16th and 17th Da-eoon Contest in Seoul, South Korea, in 2006, 2007 and

EXHIBITION Speaking Lines, an exhibition of cartoons by brothers Abani and Aswini Kumar Rath, shows what can be done with a love for art

BROTHERS IN ARMS Abani and Aswini do have creative differences, but... PHOTOS: K. GOPINATHAN

A bani and Aswini Kumar Nath are brothers bound as much by ties of creativity as by blood. In a first ever in the world of Indian cartooning, Abani and Aswini work in complete harmony, without any creative differences, on a single cartoon. They each contribute in their unique way to the drawing of a cartoon. Around 70 of their striking cartoons and caricatures, with sure and bold strokes and intermittent splashes of pink, yellow and blue adorn the walls of the Indian Cartoon Gallery.

Abani and Aswini Kumar Rath, hailing from Odisha, are renowned for their skill as cartoonists, but an unknown fact about them is they research a lot before they sketch. "Cartoonists possess a 'third eye', so to speak. They are capable of picking the absurdities, abnormalities and anomalies of society, without being offensive. They project them as humorously as possible," says Abani, who works as an officer in a nationalised insurance corporation.

Technique is important for the cartoonists. They explain the reasons behind naming the exhibition "Speaking Lines".

"A cartoon is an amalgamation of lines. The distinguishing feature of a cartoon is the sharpness of lines. We work with brushes and take the help of watercolours to visually represent the various aspects of society," explains Abani. The duo barely uses computer graphics. Aswini says that they use it only as a filling. "We have more confidence in ourselves than the machine," Aswini, the elder of the two, laughs and says.

The cartoons aren't only on political issues. They address a range of other subjects from sports and ecology to science. The duo has had a promising career in cartooning. Their work has been widely recognised. Abani recalls a particularly memorable incident. "We presented a cartoon to Kapil Dev. He was very pleased with it. We got to know that while he was leaving, he left behind all the papers, diaries and other gifts he was presented, except for our caricature of him. He kept it with care in his bag. That made us very happy," says a smiling Abani.

The duo's first cartoon appeared in 1989 in an Odia monthly. Ever since, their cartoons appeared on the front pages of almost all the leading Odia dailies. Today, they are both nationally and internationally acclaimed.

A new world view

They picked up their love for cartooning from one of their paternal uncles. "He was excellent at sketching, and with water colours. We understood the basics of drawing from him. As we matured in our art, we developed a different angle of viewing the world, which helped us to present a different dimension to our works," Aswini explains, who is the head of the botany department in a college in Odisha.

Ask them what subjects they like working on and the duo who are also law graduates, say, "Those who go hungry and have no material comforts. We want to present them in our works as they are representatives of the real India." The duo's ambition is to spread awareness on cartooning as an art form. "There are many talented cartoonists, but they get few opportunities to exhibit their work. The Indian Cartoon Gallery is the only gallery in India! We need to change this."

"Speaking Lines" will be on view at the Indian Cartoon Gallery (off M.G. Road) till December 31 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

‘ಅತ್ತಿನಿ-ಅಬನಿ’ ವ್ಯಂಗ್ಯ

ಪತ್ರಿಕೆಗಳ ಮೂಲೆಯೊಂದರಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರಕಟವಾಗುವ ವ್ಯಂಗ್ಯಚಿತ್ರಗಳು ಓದುಗರ ಗಮನ ಸೆಳೆಯುತ್ತವೆ. ಪತ್ರಿಕೆಯ ಲೇಖನಗಳಿಗಿಂತಲೂ ಅವು ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಪ್ರಭಾವಶಾಲಿಯಾಗಿ ಬೆಳೆದಿವೆ. ವ್ಯಂಗ್ಯಚಿತ್ರಗಳು ಸರ್ವಾಧಿಕಾರಿಗಳನ್ನು, ಆಡಳಿತ ಚುಕ್ಕಾಣಿ ಹಿಡಿದವರನ್ನು ನಡುಗಿಸುವ ಗುಣ ಹೊಂದಿವೆ. ವ್ಯಂಗ್ಯಚಿತ್ರಕಾರನ ವಿಡಂಬನಾತ್ಮಕ ಕುಂಚದ ಗೆರೆಗಳು ಇಂದು ವಿಶ್ವಮನ್ನಣೆ ಗಳಿಸಿವೆ ಎಂಬುದರಲ್ಲಿ ಎರಡು ಮಾತಿಲ್ಲ.

ಒಡಿಸ್ಸಾದ ಅತ್ತಿನಿ ಮತ್ತು ಅಬನು ಅವರು ರಚಿಸಿರುವ ವ್ಯಂಗ್ಯಚಿತ್ರ ಅಷ್ಟೇ ಪ್ರಭಾವಶಾಲಿ ಆಗಿವೆ. ಇವರ ರಚನೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಭಾಷಿಸಿರುವ ಅನೇಕ

ವ್ಯಂಗ್ಯಚಿತ್ರಗಳು ೨೦೧೧ರ ವರೆಗೆ ಪ್ರದರ್ಶನಗೊಳ್ಳಲಿವೆ. ಅತ್ತಿನಿ ಕುಮಾರ್ ರಥ್ ಮತ್ತು ಅಬನಿ ಕುಮಾರ್ ರಥ್ ಅತ್ತಿನಿ

ಮತ್ತು ಅಬನಿ ಎಂದೇ ಖ್ಯಾತರು. ಅವರು ಚಿಕ್ಕಂದಿನಿಂದಲೇ ವ್ಯಂಗ್ಯಚಿತ್ರದ ಗೀಳು ಹಚ್ಚಿಕೊಂಡವರು. ಇಬ್ಬರೂ ಕಾನೂನು ಪದವೀಧರರು. ವಕೀಲಿಕೆ ತೊರೆದು ರೇಷಿಯ ಬೆನ್ನತ್ತಿ ಖ್ಯಾತಿಗಳಿಸಿದವರು. ಇವರ ಮೊದಲ ವ್ಯಂಗ್ಯಚಿತ್ರ ಒರಿಯ ಭಾಷೆಯ ಮಾಸಿಕ ಪತ್ರಿಕೆಯೊಂದರಲ್ಲಿ 1989ರಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರಪ್ರಥಮವಾಗಿ ಪ್ರಕಟಗೊಂಡಿತು. ಮುಂದಿನದು ಇತಿಹಾಸ. ಈಗ ಅವರ ವ್ಯಂಗ್ಯಚಿತ್ರಗಳು ಎಲ್ಲ ಪ್ರಮುಖ ಪತ್ರಿಕೆಗಳಲ್ಲೂ ಪ್ರಕಟಗೊಳ್ಳುತ್ತಿವೆ.
